■About "Watashi no Chikara (My Energy)TM 'Kaneka Q10TM Fruit Gummies"

"Watashi no Chikara (My Energy)TM 'Kaneka Q10TM Fruit Gummies" are gummies containing a thick fruit juice jelly. The jelly with a center provides two different textures. The two flavors are lemon soda, which combines the mild acidity of Sicilian lemon juice with the refreshing sensation of soda, and juicy peach, which uses domestically produced white peach juice characterized by its juicy sweetness, allowing customers to feel the freshness of the fruit. These gummies make it easy to take in an active form of coenzyme Q10*3, and can be easily incorporated into one's daily life, such as refreshment in the midst of work or housework, or when one needs to take a breather, supporting "beauty" from within the body anytime, anywhere.
